

AUTUMN IS HERE

FOR KIM

The weather's turning, the evening air is cool.
Sweetness of summer gives way to winter, cruel.
This chilly season once filled me with despair,
This year is different; I'm in a love affair.

Autumn is here, but I'm not sighing,
Although in seasons past, you might find me crying.
Whenever fall appeared it often found me sad,
But Autumn this year makes me glad.

Autumn is here, the colors changing,
The way you changed my heart, so gently arranging,
Arranging melodies of love for me to hear,
Autumn sounds sweet this year.

This year the threat of winter doesn't ruin my mood,
This year I don't enjoy a mournful solitude.
This year I know that there is harbor from the storm,
Your touches soft, your kisses warm.

Autumn is here, but I'm not blue,
The reason's obvious, it's because of you.
Though I may be biased because I wear your ring,
Autumn is here and I sing.
