

I WISH I DIDN'T LOVE YOU

If wishes were fishes, I'd live far from the seas
If wishes were blackbirds, I'd live far from the trees
If wishes were raindrops, my skies would be blue
Oh, how I wish I didn't love you

If wishes were honey, I'd be allergic to bees
If wishes were puppies, I'd only get fleas
If wishes were fiction, my story'd be true
Oh, how I wish I didn't love you

Each time I think I might have a prayer
In this crazy one-sided dance,
You'd let me know that I'm just in your hair
And throw me a look as sharp as a lance

If love it was water, we'd be desert sand
If love it was silence, we'd be a brass band
If love it was coffee, we'd be tea for two
Oh, how I wish I didn't love you

Each time I think there might be a chance
We'll end up ever after happ'ly,
You'd let me know that a little romance
Is the last thing you'd think of with me.

If love it was fire, we'd be arctic ice,
If love it was salt, dear, we'd be sugar and spice
If love it was antique, we'd be spanking new
Oh, how I wish I didn't love you
Oh, how I wish
Oh how I wish
How I wish I didn't love you.
But I do.
