

Lonely

Lonely, why am I oh, so lonely?
Whenever I think I've found someone who'll stick around,
I end up on the ground again.
Lonely, I'm oh, so lonely.
You said you'd always be true, now you've left and I'm blue,
What am I gonna do alone?

Seems like nothing ever stays the same.
When will I find love that will remain?
Though were taught to give and not receive,
Why give all you have, if she's gonna leave you?

Lonely, I'm oh, so lonely.
You said you'd always be mine, now I'm hung on the line,
And my heart's in decline again. Lonely.

Where did all the laughs and fun run to?
Every day seemed too good to be true.
Is love only self-hypnosis, dear?
Can it really be love was ever here?

Lonely, I'm oh, so lonely,
You said you'd always be mine, now I'm hung on the line,
And my heart's in decline again. I'm Lonely.
